

ATTENTION

Please be advised that in order to reduce the spread of COVID- 19 the Justice of the Peace will be limiting public facing services in order to protect the public and employees from potential exposure to the virus. Our office will remain open taking phone calls and answering any questions or concerns you may have. You may also contact us via email.

If you are filing any type of Civil Suit, please mail in the original documents along with a money order for payment. Please be advised that on March 19th, the Texas Supreme Court issued an order stopping eviction cases through April 19, 2020 unless imminent danger exists. Emergency filings are available by appointment only.

Please call our office and we will be more than happy to assist you.
